ABOUT ME

I am a Year 3 Big Data and Analytics student at Temasek Polytechnic with hands-on experience in SQL, Python, Power BI, Alteryx, and AWS cloud services. I have built data pipelines, cleaned and validated datasets, and developed interactive dashboards to generate actionable insights. I enjoy transforming raw data into meaningful information and I'm seeking a Data Analytics Internship where I can contribute to data reporting, dashboard development, SQL analysis, and data-driven decision making while further strengthening my analytical skills.
